if it is not returned, the owner's lack of action must be construed as support of the creation of the special district. The form must allow a property owner to select either support for or opposition against the creation of the district. However, if an owner does not make a selection of

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The President states that he is pleased to see the Congress assembled, and that he is confident that the country is in a good position to meet the challenges of the future. He also mentions the recent election of Abraham Lincoln as President, and expresses his confidence in the new administration.

support or opposition and returns the form to the governing body, it must be construed as a protest of the creation of the special district."
